Sourced from several sites in the heart of the Russian River Valley, the grapes are vinified in our traditional style; vineyard lots were fermented separately to highlight the distinctive characteristics and unique flavor profiles famous to this region. After barrel ageing and careful selection, the wines are united in a single cuvee exemplifying Russian River Valley Zinfandel.

Aromas of cherry and raspberry lift from the glass, followed by notes of spice and pine duff. Brambly boysenberry notes linger on the palate as juicy cranberry layers mingle with black peppery hints of autumn forest. Medium bodied and fresh, this wine unfolds with a wonderful balance of acidity and lush tannins leading to a long finish. Robust and high-toned, this wine will drink beautifully for years to come.
